

Jeff Myers, CPL is currently semi-retired as an Oil and Gas Executive and Owner of Landmen.com, Inc. He is a 1979 graduate of the University of Oklahoma with a major in Petroleum Land Management, where he was awarded the Julian J. Rothbaum Award, which is given to the highest-ranking graduating senior in the PLM program. Jeff has been a successful business owner and Landman for over 30 years.

One of Mr. Myers' most celebrated career accomplishments has been the founding of Associated Resources Inc. in 1993, which specializes in the outsourcing of various oil and gas contractors for services covering all aspects of the Energy field. They were recognized on The Journal Record's "Tulsa's Fast 40" list after becoming one of Oklahoma's more prominent outsourcers for Oil and Gas Professional Services. After nearly 20 years, he sold ARI to the T. S. Dudley Company in 2012, and the company continues to operate successfully.

Mr. Myers has had a distinguished career as a Landman working both in the field and in-house for companies of all sizes and scopes. Jeff is known to have employed over 400 people during his career, as well as, a similar number of contract landmen and land consultants. Jeff has an impeccable record serving the industry as a top-employer of energy management graduates, not only for his companies, but for successfully placing graduates at major and independent companies as well.

Mr. Myers has also been an involved member of the AAPL since 1977, and the TAPL which he joined in 1983. As a 40+ year member of the AAPL, Jeff has served as national chairman for several committees including the Field Landman Committee, the Certification Committee, and the Publications Committee. Mr. Myers has also taught the CPL certification course for the AAPL, and has been a regular contributor to the Field Update portion of AAPL's Landman 2 publication. As a member of TAPL, Mr. Myers has served on the Board multiple times as President, Editor of the Newsletter, 2009-2010 TAPL By Laws Committee, and as AAPL Director. Mr. Myers was chosen by TAPL as Landman of the Year in 2012.

In his limited free time, Jeff gives back to his community by donating his time to organizations such as the Tulsa Area YMCA. Jeff is an avid cyclist, pilot, and loves spending time with his grandson and family.

Throughout his life Jeff Myers has persevered over many obstacles, both in business and his personal life—none greater than the adversity he faced after surviving a plane crash in January 2005. It was Mr. Myers' determination and strength that brought him through his amazing trials. He exudes all of the attributes many strive for throughout their career, his many accomplishments serving as a testament to that. To be recognized by his peers with this Lifetime Achievement Award would be well deserved.

