

Pioneer Award

Please attach this form to your one page nomination for AAPL Pioneer Award summarizing: 1) Significant impact to the land profession with a distinct contribution; 2) Only one award per year to be presented; 3) No regional awards; 4) No minimum age or work requirement; 5) could be posthumously; 6) Open to groups or companies, not just individuals. (Can be non-members) To be presented to an individual, group or company who at any time has significantly impacted the land profession with a fundamentally distinct contribution. Current Executive Committee members may not be submitted, and self-nominations will not be considered.

NAME OF NOMINEE/COMPANY/GROUP: Jeanine Haller Piskurich

LOCAL ASSOCIATION AFFILIATION (If applicable): Houston Association of Professional Landmen

NOMINATED BY: Houston Association of Professional Landmen

AAPL 2024 Pioneer Award
Jeanine Haller Piskurich

Jeanine Haller Piskurich, is an industry leader promoted to the first ever Vice President of Land role within BP's Lower 48 Business Unit. She is the former Vice President Land, East Business Unit at BPX Energy, and has extensive industry experience with the lower 48 states in acquisitions, divestments, business development, new entry access, and exploration and development. During her time at BP she led over 150 direct and indirect reports in activities covering in excess of 2 million acres. Her legacy helped build a world-class land organization benchmarked across the US as best in class and did so by recruiting, leading, retaining, and promoting high-performing individuals that contributed to over $6 billion of value to the company.

Jeanine was the first female chair of the NAPE Operator's Committee and the NAPE Advisory Board. She is a former executive committee member of AAPL, a Past President of HAPL, an IPAA/PESA Petroleum Academies Education Advisory board member, and Executive Leadership team member of the American Heart Association. She has been recognized as Outstanding Landman by HAPL; awarded the Women in Energy Leadership Award by the Houston Business Journal, Texas Top Producer Best Landman by TIPRO and by Texas Monthly Magazine, and Greater Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce Breakthrough Woman and Role Model.

Jeanine was a panelist on the inaugural "Connections and Conversations" series at NAPE in 2019 highlighting the strengths and talents that women bring to the industry, and served as a moderator in the Leadership Track at the sold out inaugural AAPL "Women in Energy Institute" in 2023. She was inducted into the NAPE Hall of Fame in February 2024.

Jeanine currently serves on multiple advisory boards including the Greater Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the Board of Visitors of Southwestern University, Texas Christian University's Family Council, and as Governance Chair of the University of Louisiana-Lafayette Foundation Board of Directors, her alma mater. She serves as Secretary of the Executive Advisory Committee of the B.I. Moody College of Business at ULL and was appointed by the Spring Branch Independent School Board Trustees to their Community Bond Oversight Committee to oversee the $1.280 billion bonds approved by voters.

Jeanine is married to Nick Piskurich, and is the mother of two daughters, Caroline and Catherine.

