

OCAPL's Nomination to AAPL for 2020 Lifetime Achievement Award
Bryan Hennigan

OCAPL would like to nominate Bryan Hennigan, for the AAPL 2020 Lifetime Achievement Award. Bryan currently serves as VP of Exploration and Development of Mustang Fuel Corp. and has over 30 years of experience in the industry, having worked for various E&P Companies, including Phillips Petroleum, Oryx Energy, Samson Resources and committed 19 years to EOG Resources, serving as the Oklahoma city Division Business Development and Land Manager.

He is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, AAPL (where he served as Chairman for numerous committees as well as a member of Executive Committee), OCAPL and serves on the University of Oklahoma's Michael Price Business College Energy Management Advisory Board. Bryan has also served the past 5 years as the Co-Chairman of the William M. Majors Mentoring program, which pairs OU Energy Management students with energy executives for professional and personal guidance. As a Chairman of the Mentoring program, he has been extremely passionate about developing relationships and connections with those entering our profession and is always adamant about teaching the importance of strong ethical behavior.

He has been a member of OCAPL since 1998 and served in several capacities. Through his leadership and efforts, Bryan was awarded the OCAPL Landman of the Year Award in 2013 and was the recipient of the 2019 OCAPL William M. Majors Distinguished Service Award.

Bryan is originally from Okmulgee, OK and is married to his lovely wife Amber and they have two daughters, Morgan and Macey. Outside of guiding our industry, he enjoys Golf, playing the Guitar and listening to Live music.
