

Face of the Industry

Please attach this form to your one page nomination for AAPL Face of the Industry Award summarizing: The nominees' use of a variety of media platforms to communicate to the general public the importance of industry best practices, industry contributions to surrounding communities through community involvement, and how the industry contributes to the ongoing improvement in everyday life. This award should be presented to an AAPL Member, Local Organization, or supporting corporation that has significantly represented the public face of the land profession and the energy industry as a whole in a positive light. To be presented to the AAPL Member, Local Organization, or supporting corporation in recognition of their efforts to use a variety of platforms to educate and inform the public of industry best practices, community involvement, and benefits to everyday life. Current Executive Committee members may not be submitted, and self-nominations will not be considered.

NAME OF NOMINEE/COMPANY/GROUP: Hamel Reinmiller, CPL

LOCAL ASSOCIATION AFFILIATION (If applicable): Tulsa Association of Petroleum Landmen

Criteria	Points	Score
EDUCATIONAL VALUE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC	0-8	_____
COVERAGE (Local, National & Industry)	0-7	_____
	Total Points	<input type="text"/>

NOMINATED BY: Mariena Martin, President

AAPL Award Nomination – Face of the Industry: Hamel B. Reinmiller, CPL

When this award was announced, Hamel B. Reinmiller, CPL was the only name that came to mind from the Tulsa Association. Mr. Reinmiller is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute but is a lifelong fan and supporter of Oklahoma Sooners. He is married to Lauren C. Reinmiller who currently serves as the Vice President of External Affairs for the Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits. Together, they have two Weimaraners, Traveler Lee and Winnie Mae.

Mr. Reinmiller currently serves as the Executive Vice President – Land, Legal, and Business Development (Co-Founder) of Command Energy, LLC. In this role he is a tireless recruiter of SEC accredited investors from all sectors of business and from across the country in an effort to fundraise for Command Energy’s annual vertical drilling programs. Through this process, Mr. Reinmiller is working to reestablish investor trust in our industry through this “back to our roots” approach to upstream Oil & Gas. Prior to Command, Mr. Reinmiller held numerous executive-level positions within various public and private equity backed upstream oil and gas companies.

Mr. Reinmiller has served TAPL in a number of different ways, including as Benefits Director, Secretary, Vice President, and ultimately President of the Association. As Vice President he chaired our By-Law Committee Review and has sponsored or brought in numerous speakers for our monthly association meetings. He also continues to serve as a mentor and as a founding member of TAPL's Scholarship, Endowment, Awards, and Mentoring (SEAM) Committee, where he was the driving force in founding TAPL's Endowments at both the University of Oklahoma and the University of Tulsa. Every year, these endowments benefit AAPL scholarship candidates in the Energy Management programs exclusively and ensure that that deserving EM / PLM students from both universities will maintain their access to scholarships, regardless of the state of the industry.

Mr. Reinmiller has continuously served AAPL & in his current role, serves as Trustee for AAPL's Landman Scholarship Trust (LST). He is most proud of his service as a multi-term Region VI Director, his time as the chair of the Ethics Committee & certainly as the Secretary (EXCOM Member) of the Association. However, he has served on numerous committee's such as publications and accreditation to name a few. It goes without saying that Mr. Reinmiller is one of the most well-liked and respected members of TAPL & AAPL as well and he has always remained actively engaged in improving the image of a Landman through his work, commitment, and service to the TAPL and the AAPL. He remains an active member of the OCAPL Chapter, the Oklahoma Petroleum Alliance & of Adam – Tulsa where he continues to display his relentless hard work and ethical standards.

When Hamel is not devoting his time and energy to the industry, he remains very active in the community:

- Energy Management Board Member for the University of Oklahoma's Price College of Business. (4 yrs)
- Board Member / Executive Committee of Family and Children's Services (15 yrs)
 - Former chair of the Resource Development Committee
 - Founder of the "The Party, Just Wear White"
 - 2023 Chair of The Party
 - Member of the CEO Search Committee
- Appointed to the Behavioral Health Licensure Board for the State of Oklahoma by Gov. Stitt (3 yrs)
- Executive Committee / Board Member of the Boy Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma Indian Nation's Council (1yr)
- Former Member of the Membership Committee at Cedar Ridge Country Club (5 yrs)
- Board Member of Fit First Responders (3 yrs)
- Appointed to the Tulsa Economic Development Commission by Mayor G.T. Bynum (2 yrs)
- Current House Committee Member and previous Member of the Summit Club's Board of Governors (15 yrs)
- Member of the Knights of Columbus and active member of St. Bernard's Parish (1yr)
- President of the Virginia Military Institute Alumni Association – Oklahoma Chapter (15 yrs)

Mr. Reinmiller believes in the education of the citizen soldier that he learned during his time at the Virginia Military Institute and consequently takes community involvement, service & civic duty extremely seriously and continues to pour his heart into each and every position he holds. He regularly talks with individuals outside the industry to help people who may not understand how important our profession is to keep the world moving forward. Professionals like Mr. Reinmiller are more important now than ever, and he takes great pride when describing what we do for a living. He has never met a stranger and is the definition of a networker, which is a small part of what makes him the perfect recipient of this award. Every day, whether it's in a board meeting or just talking to a waiter during lunch, he is always fighting for our industry. Mr. Reinmiller's diligent work ethic, morale compass, dedication to his profession, and service to TAPL, AAPL, and the local community make him a role model for all Landmen. Therefore, we as an Association cannot think of a more deserving professional and friend to be honored with being named the AAPL Face of the Industry Award winner.